Population growth, structure and distribution

The Economic and Social Council

Reaffirming the commitment of Member States to the implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development,[1]

Recalling the recommendations of the Programme of Action relating to population growth, structure and distribution,

Recalling further that the theme for the thirty-second session of the Commission on Population and Development is population growth, structure and distribution, and noting the importance of the issues related to, inter alia, youth, ageing and migration, as well as the need for data collection,

Requests the Population Division of the United Nations Secretariat to continue its research on population growth, structure and distribution, including levels, trends, determinants, consequences and policies, while giving due attention to issues related to, inter alia, youth, ageing, migration and data collection, so that Governments may benefit by comparing experiences and by understanding the factors underlying changing demographic circumstances, and calls upon Governments to continue to facilitate the work of the Population Division in this regard.
